THE POST

Professional Online Supports for Teaching

Dear Colleagues,

Are you interested in having resources to support your profession delivered to your inbox each month? The Professional Online Supports for Teaching (POST) newsletter connects you with updates from the division and tools for use in your classroom. On the first Wednesday of each month, you can expect it to be “delivered” to your inbox.

Sign up is easy! Complete the subscription form to start receiving the POST. Haven't seen an issue? Visit the POST archives to see what you've been missing. Thank you for your continued dedication to your students.

Dr. Laura C. Morana
Chief Academic Officer
Division of Teaching and Learning

Check your inbox on the first Wednesday of each month for your copy of the POST.
